HOW TO DEAL WITH PICKY EATERS AND DEVELOP GOOD EATING HABITS

- Be a role model eat and serve a variety of foods
- 2. Provide the structure of regularly scheduled mealtimes
- 3. Avoid using foods as punishment, reward, or bribe
- 4. Positive re-enforcement for good eating behavior
- 5. Offer appropriate portions for age and size
- 6. Decrease outside stimulation at meal times (e.g. television, phone calls, argument)
- 7. Sit down to eat take 15 minutes to calm down before a meal. A child is more fussy when ill, tired, or over-excited
- Regulate snack times and types of snacks
- 9. Don't be a short order cook. Offer but limit choices
- 10. Serve new foods along with favorite foods. Use "one bite" rule where a child must take one bite of the new food before turning it down.

Parent is responsible for WHAT, WHEN, WHERE to eat. Child is responsible for HOW MUCH he/she eats.
